

Intro to Secure Email

With GLBA security issues at the forefront, we have implemented ZixCorp secure email solutions to protect our email communications, ensuring all personally identifiable financial information remains confidential. For both our employees and our e-messaging partners, ZixCorp makes secure communications easy. ZixCorp's services allow us to send encrypted email messages to anyone, whether they are ZixCorp customers or not.

Secure messaging ensures against credit card fraud and consumer identity theft. It's also an effective way to conduct financial business. This site will help you understand our secure e-messaging initiatives.

To protect consumer data and comply with improved best practice standards, all email communication you receive from us containing personally identifiable financial information takes advantage of ZixCorp's encryption services. ZixCorp's easy-to-use e-messaging protection makes it easy for you to receive, read and reply to all our encrypted communications - whether you are a ZixCorp customer or not.
